MANAGER

Not Enthusiastic Over German Peace Proposal

The reply of the President of the United States to the German note, indicates plainly that Wilson is "on the job." A clause from one of the President's speeches, which is included in the reply, reads as follows:

"The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world; or, if it cannot be presently destroyed, at least its reduction to virtual impotency. The power which has hitherto controlled the German nation is of the sort here described. It is within the choice of the German nation to alter it."

They should understand that sort of talk, even in Germany.

Next-of-Kin Tag Day Resulted Satisfactorily.

The G. W. Next-of-Kin Association wish to thank the public for their very generous response on Tag-Day, the sum of $112.10 being the amount of the collection. Anyone who has not sent in the address of their soldier is requested to do so at once.

Memorial Service

Unveiling Honor Roll.

A memorial service will be held in the Institutional church on Sunday next, Oct. 20th, at 7 p.m., in honor of the following who have paid the supreme sacrifice in the war: T. Price W. Maggs, J. Gregory, Chas. Mitchell, Chas. Dunlop, Jules Guerin. Preceding the service Capt. Ritchie, of Frank Sanatorium, will unveil the Honor Roll of the Institutional Church.

Daylight Savlight Time May be Continued.

It is expected that Canada will follow the lead of the United States in regard to daylight saving. There is a suggestion that a change will be made there at the latter end of October, but it is possible the time in use will be retained during the winter as a coal saver.

On Nov. 1st G. Moretti assumes the position of manager of the Dietaphone Company for the Province of Alberta, with headquarters at Calgary, to which city he will move in the near future.

The German minister, of foreign affairs will shortly appoint a committee of parliamentarians and jurists to frame a German plan for a league of nations, the semi-official North German Gazette announces, according to a dispatch from Basel.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE!

As intimated in last weeks issue there will be no paper on Oct. 25th, owing to the absence of the editor on a business trip.

Advertisers are requested to have their copy for issue of Nov. 1 in the office not later than Tuesday, Oct. 29th.

Owing to the freight handlers strike, or because it was not shipped soon enough, the regular shipment of paper for the Bulletin did not arrive in time for this issue. The abbreviated size is the consequence.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Wm. Evans, whose funeral took place on Friday last, was with Mr. Evans, one of the old time residents of Coleman, having lived here since the town started. In addition to her husband the deceased leaves three sons, Charles, in France; Harry, in Montana and James in Coleman. Two daughters are living, one in Calgary and the other in the United States. Mrs. Evans will be sadly missed and the sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family.

WILL PREACH HERE SUNDAY

The Rev. J. N. Wilkinson, of Pincher Creek, will be the preacher at the missionary service to be held in the Institutional church on Oct. 27th. Mr. Wilkinson is one of the ablest Methodist ministers between here and Calgary.

HATS OFF TO THESE!

Timothy J. Murphy of Chicago, a freight handler, is the father of twenty one children, eighteen of whom are living. And the eighteen are engaged in war work.

Eight sons, all of them six foot or more tall, are in military service and the ten daughters are engaged in Red Cross and other kinds of war work.

For this the Catholic Record vouches. But The Crisis is authority for a still more wonderful statement. John Ward, a Negro of Goldsboro, S.C., has thirteen of his eighteen sons in the Ninth and Tenth United States Cavalry, and seventeen daughters doing war work.

Jewelry!

With the arrival of new goods daily my stock has become well worthy of public inspection, and you are cordially invited to inspect it whether you have present intentions of buying or not. In the watch repairing line I am able to give you the benefit of long experience.

Editorial Comment

Germany's Latest Peace Move

Germany's apparent acceptance of President Wilson's proposal of grounds for an armistice, will, it is safe to say, prove unacceptable to the Allied powers. Not only is the sincerity of the Germans open to suspicion, but the acceptance is very ambiguously worded, and under any circumstances a considerable period would elapse before a clear understanding could be established. In the meantime the effort to prosecute the war should be speeded up rather than diminished, so that no possible benefit may accrue to the Germans if their professed acceptance is bogus, which it is very likely to prove to be.

It is not a terrible reflection on the status the military party has achieved for Germany that while proposals from Bulgaria or Turkey are considered as worthy of immediate consideration and action, every movement originating in Germany is considered merely a trick to gain a temporary advantage. Such a thing as truth or honor are not expected from the Hun.

The conclusion of the war will develop whether German preparedness, of which we have heard so much, included preparations for a possible defeat on the same scale as for a possible victory.

The men of the Ogden shops at Calgary have walked out in open defiance of the recent Order-in-Council. It is now up to the Union Government to show whether they are in control of the country or just such portions of it as chooses to obey the laws on their own behalf.

Union Government on the Carpet.

(From the Calgary Canadian).

Last year about this time, when Prime Minister Borden went to the Ontario city of Kitchener to deliver an address he was howled down by the people in that city who speak the German tongue, the latter giving as their reason that Borden's wartime election act had disfranchised thousands of them, even those born in Canada. And a howl went up from the patriotic (?) Unionists all over the country. A couple of weeks ago the Unionist government announced that it proposed to stop the publication in Canada of every newspaper printed in the German language. And a few days ago this same Unionist government granted a license for the publication in the city of Kitchener (formerly Berlin) of a newspaper to be printed in the German language. A fine bunch of professing patriots (?) this Union government, surely. Filling the West with Mennonites who speak the German language and granting licenses to German newspapers in Ontario does not altogether harmonize with the pledges of the political combination who a year ago scrambled into office chiefly through abuse of the French language—the language of one of our staunchest allies in Europe and the language of a race that helped to bring about the confederation of Canada over fifty years ago.

The Wounded Soldier's Last Defence.

The Red Cross is the wounded soldier's last defense. It is greater than cannon, greater than hate, greater than blood lust, greater than vengeance. It triumphs over wrath as good triumphs over evil. Direct descendant of the Cross of Christian faith, it carries on to every battlefield the words of the Man of peace: Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy.

The only heaven in this black picture of war as I have seen it, as it has touched me, has been the scarlet of the Red Cross. To a faith that the terrible scenes at the front had almost destroyed, came every now and then again the flash of the emblem of mercy. Hope then, was not dead. There were hands to soothe and labor, as well as hands to kill. There was still brotherly love in the world. There was a courage that was not of hate. There was a patience that was not a lying in wait. There was a flag that was not of one nation, but of all the world; a flag that needed no recruiting station, for the ranks it led were always full to overflowing; a flag that stood between the wounded soldier and death; that knew no defeat but surrendered to the God of Battles.—Mary Roberts Rinehart in Kings, Queens and Pawns.

Canada Food Board Says:

The world is apt to forget that there are 10,000,000 people, Belgians and French, who have to be fed and clothed by the sheer spirit of what we call humanity in the rest of the white peoples. Improving war news has not altered the position of most of them. There are children who have never known anything but the state of slavery. Over 200,000 tons of shipping secured by arrangements from the Swedish Government for use in non-war zones, have been devoted to carrying in the coming year the food and clothing which we must send from this side of the Atlantic to this trampled-on but unconquerable people. The following foodstuffs will have to be transported across the Atlantic in the next twelve months.

Wheat, Barley, Rye and Corn for Bread purposes.....	42,500,000 bus.
Beans.....	2,200,000 bus.
Rice.....	3,300,000 bus.
Corned Beef.....	26,400,000 lbs.
Pork Products.....	277,200,000 lbs.
Soap.....	66,000,000 lbs.
Coffee.....	26,000,000 lbs.
Food for the Children.....	(No Estimate)
Cocoa.....	18,000,000 lbs.
Condensed Milk.....	55,000,000 lbs.
Sugar.....	40,000,000 lbs.

At best, the cost will be nearly $280,000,000. The Dutch and Spanish governments, through their agents in Belgium, will see that these supplies are not misused by the German army.

The low cost per cup

It is hard to believe that a cup of good, rich tea only costs about a fifth of a cent, but, you see, Red Rose consists chiefly of Assam teas—the richest, strongest teas in the world.

Red Rose easily yields 250 cups to the pound. And it's a tea of rare economy and flavor.

COMMUNICATIONS

(The Bulletin is not responsible for the opinions of correspondents).

Editor Coleman Bulletin:

Dear Sir—At our regular meeting on Sunday, Oct. 6th, 1918, after a lengthy discussion re the Hillcrest disaster and the wages that our brothers had laid down their lives for, so that their wives and children might have the necessities of life.

A motion was passed that the Sec. Treas. have full liberty to make known to the public in any way he might see fit to do so—as our hearts are pricked beyond healing—the treatment the treatment the widows and children have received in regard to wages due at the time of the great disaster, as after waiting four years and three months there are some who have not received any part of the wages due at that time.

Now, my dear reader, just imagine my surprise as Sec. Treas. of the Hillcrest Local Union for two and a half years to have the widow of the late Mike Kipyanchuk spring upon me in the office and say (I will give her own words, "What's the matter, Mr. Sec', me not get my husband's wages some women get?" I asked her the necessary questions, and I immediately took upon myself the responsibility to investigate, and here is a true copy in every respect as regards his wages:

THE IMPERIAL CANADIAN TRUST COMPANY

In Acc. with M. Kipyanchuk Estate.

DR. CR.

1914 July 14. Cash on hand.. $5 1.00

Sept. 30. Pay cheques re-exchange on cheque.. $5 73.00

Oct. 13. Share expenses J. S. Hanlon, Hillcrest.. 7.50

Paid Court fees, obtaining administrator's 11.90

Nov. 4. Share expenses Adv. for claims..... .50

Dec. 22. Costs obt. Adm. 21.00

1915 July 19. To bal. H. Ostlund Acct..... 5.00

1916 May 28. Imperial C. Trust Co. fee..... 5.00

1917 Nov. 19. H. Ostlund, bill of costs..... 22.00

$73.45 $74.00

Bal. 65c.

There is another point that I wish to make known. The widow of M. Kipyanchuk remarried a brother of her first husband, Alex, by name, and went to the U.S.A., and she has been trying to get the transfer of her first husband's estate. She placed it in the hands of a lawyer and was charged $40.00, but there has been no transfer to date. The lawyer took charge of $40.00 and sent the remaining $50.00 to the trust company and they placed it to the credit of the estate of M. Kipyanchuk, to which it does not belong as it is the widow's money entirely. But what is the lawyer doing with the $40.00, we would like to know?

This is only one of the many cases, and I am told that it is not Union business, it is the laws under which we live and allow to exist. I differ with the first part, but I agree with the latter part. It is the laws we live under and allow to exist.

But, do we know that we make the laws and that we allow them to exist? If not, then God pity us in our ignorance. Other paper please copy, and oblige,

FRANK LOTE,
Sec'y-Treas. Hillcrest Local Union,
U. M. W. of A.

There was a large attendance at the Thanksgiving service in the evening, when the Rev. D. H. Allan preached a powerful sermon on "Reasons for Thanksgiving."

Coleman Oddfellows Unveil Memorial.

A very interesting program was carried out on Monday night last, by the local Order of Oddfellows, in the presence of a large number of members of the Order and their friends. Prior to the unveiling ceremony a message of condolence was ordered to be sent to the lodge at Blairmore, and to the family of the late Capt. D. Fraser, killed in action. The deceased soldier was a member of the Blairmore Lodge, and well known and respected here also.

Bro. J. Fairhurst, as the youngest member of the lodge here, acted as chairman and the oldest Past Noble Grand, Bro. J. Hatfield, unveiled the roll. The Chairman in his remark paid a fitting tribute to the thousands of Oddfellows the world over who have taken their share in the Great War and also passed sympathetic reference to the memory of Bro. R. Turner, the only one on the Roll killed in action, and hoped there would be no more.

A feature of the evening was the entertainment provided by the committee appointed for that purpose. In addition to patriotic and national anthems, etc. The following brothers and visitors gave songs, readings, etc., viz.—Bro. W. Hayson, J. Houghton, Harry W. Clark, Sister D. Rogers, Mr. T. Coram, Mr. J. Emmerson presided at the piano and a dance, music by Mr. and Mrs. F. Stokes brought an evening to a conclusion that will not be forgotten for a long time.
